Hamlet

Act 3 Scene 1

Lines: 163-175

Meaning:

He was so noble and now he's lost in his own self.

O, what a noble mind is here o'erthrown

Courtier's and tongue goes together because with out a tongue no courtier would be a good one.

Soldier and sword go together because he won't be a soldier with out his sword.

For a scholar to be a scholar he needs
his eyes to work.

The courtier's, what soldier's scholar's, eye, tongue,
sword,

(Th' expectancy) and rose of the fair state,

The glass of fashion and the mold of form

Meaning:

He was the rose of the state. Like a flower or a jewel. Perfection.

Hamlet

Act 3 Scene 1
Lines: 163-175

Repetition.
This is for effect and to really get the point across.

Meaning:
Out of all the women who fell for Hamlet, I am the most miserable. She used to think of him as so sweet and now its so out of sync she is confused.

Th' observed of all observers, quite, quite down!
And I, of ladies most deject and wretched,
That sucked the honey of his musicked vows,
Now see (that) noble and most sovereign reason

Hamlet

Act 3 Scene 1

Lines: 163-175

Like sweet bells jangled, out of time and harsh;
That unmatched form and stature of blown youth
Blasted with ecstasy. O, woe is me
T' have seen what I have seen, see what I see!

Meaning:
I am surprised to what I have just seen and experienced. I know what I saw and that's not what it used to be.

The End!
