

LOS PIZACADORES

Stand against organizations that don't support their rights

Trader Joe's could bring a change, but they don't...

THE WORKERS OF FLORIDA

Under Florida's scorching sun, these tomato pickers suffer greatly while scrapping the little pay that they make. They get up around 4-5 in the morning to pick the tomatoes that you eat in fast food places, for instance, McDonalds, and local markets, like Trader Joe's. They only make 45 cents for 32 lbs. of tomatoes in one bucket. Traders Joe's refuses to sign an agreement between themselves and the CIW- Coalition of Immokalee Workers- that increases their pay by just one penny! Help spread the word in this cruelty, and stop buying your tomatoes from Trader Joe's!

...Philly, stand up against this cruel
treatment and greed!
