

Public Schools in El Salvador

-School starts at 7:00 and ends at 12:30

-All Schooling is in one building (1-12th grade)

-The schools are poor and it cost $50 per year to be in school

-Majority of schools are small

-Many schools don't provide food for the students

-Classes do not have enough materials to support all the kids.

There is some cost included in going to school.

The kids have to get their own uniforms and utensils.

The schools depend in the government for funding.

Public High Schools in Philadelphia

-School starts at 8:00 and ends around 3:00

-Schooling is in 3 different buildings (1-4), (5-8), (9-12)

-The schools are richer than most and no money needed.

-Majority of schools are medium to large.

-Schools give free food to students (mostly).

-Classes have more than enough materials.