

El Proyecto Final Presonalizado

Kimberly Parker

Descripción General:

This is a designed process for improving my spoken conversational ability. I've set some goals for myself before I engaged in a conversation and then summarized the conversation and evaluated myself based on my performance.

Objetivos que hice (5):

Michelle Torrelli me está ayudando a alcanzar mis metas. Michelle habla con fluidez el español. Vamos a video chat una vez por semana durante cinco semanas con el fin de cumplir con mis metas.

GOALS!!!!

Week #1) I want to focus on clothing. In this first conversation, I want to focus on being able to recognize different articles in clothing and able to say them in Spanish. I also want to be able to compliment on clothing that I like.

Week #2) I want to learn how to tell other people where I am or where I was, using past and present tenses. I also want to describe the places I've been.

Week #3) For week #3, I want to focus on talking about emotions. On top of that, I want to be able to describe why I feel that way.

Week #4) For week #4, I want to talk about food! Food is an interest of mine and would like to expand my Spanish speaking on it.

Week #5) For week #5, I want to work on completing sentences. Not just any sentences, detailed sentences where I describe everything I've learned so far.

PRE-CONVERSACIÓN

1. ¿Cuál es tu tema de conversación?

Mi tema de conversación para una semana se va a centrar en la ropa. Quiero reconocer artículo diferente de la ropa. Quiero felicitar a la ropa que me gusta.

2. What are five questions related to your conversation goal that you can think of ahead of time to ask your partner?

Five questions that I am going to ask Michelle are:

-¿Qué es una buena de complementar la ropa de una persona?

-¿Me puede dar un vocabulario para la ropa?

-¿Cómo se utiliza el tiempo pasado?

-¿Qué ropa te pones?

-¿Qué ropa usa la gente en la Argentina? (Michelle originates from Argentina)

3. How do you anticipate your partner will respond to these questions?

I anticipate that Michelle will know the answers to all of these questions. She will defiantly be able to give me some vocabulary. I think that these questions are going to be good conversation starters and will enable the conversation to go really smoothly for the five minutes.

4. What are you looking forward to about this conversation?

I really am looking forward to having a full on conversation in Spanish with someone who is fluent in the language. I'm also looking forward to learning some new vocabulary. I'm curious to know what kind of clothing they wear in Argentina as well.

5. What are you nervous about?

I'm not as nervous as I would be if I was to chat with a stranger. Since Michelle is my friend, I know she will be able to help me and I shouldn't be too nervous. I'm a little about not being able to keep up with the conversation or not knowing what she is saying. But I know Michelle will help me if I get stuck and won't get irritated with me like maybe someone over the internet would.
