

PHYSICS IN THE PERFORMING ARTS

JUSTIN PULLINS

PHYSICS IN LIFE

- Physics is a necessary element to life.
- PHYSICS IS EVERYWHERE!
- Physics is incorporated, someway, into everything we do.

PERFORMING ARTS

- An instinctive, tangible craft.
- Many would think far from the realm of physics, but actually quite connected with it.
- Great example of real-world applications.

ANTI-GRAVITY TROUPE

- Popular performing troupe that works with many artists and Broadway musicals.
- Performers use physics to enhance their performances.

ANTI-GRAVITY (CONT'D)

THE WORLD OF PHYSICS

- Physics is truly everywhere!
