& White or right? 🐥

Defendent Tom Robinson and his lawyer Atticus Finch

Prosecution Bob Ewell and Mayella Ewell

Which is right?

The racism in Maycomb is just too much. People here judge you for being colored or in my case marrying a black woman and having mixed babies. It's my choice, it's not my fault I fell in love with a black woman. If the court just wants to make Tom guilty just because he's black, then I do not want to be in Maycomb anymore. Tom Robinson was a good man and should not have deserved that. He would never rape Mayella Ewell nor beat her. If the court knew what was good for them then they would announced him innocent. But the people of Maycomb are all a bunch of cowards who are on no good bandwagons.

ATTICUS FINCH DEFENDING

MAYELLA EWELL ON THE STAND

TOM ROBINSON ON STAND

This town is split up by race. Whites who think they're better than the blacks that work for them. Black workers are just doing their job, they're not slaves. If the whites weren't lazy, the blacks wouldn't have any jobs offered to them. Why aren't there white workers working for other white people? People think that the blacks are dirty and poor while the Ewells are very poor living off of a dumpster. Why don't they look down on them, is it because they're white, they're right?

People think I'm deranged for marrying a black woman and conceived mixed children. Just because people do not approve my life choices does not mean I'm going to stop living my life the way I want to. Looks can be deceiving, for example the people living in this place think I'm always drunk. But what they don't know is what is in the paper bag, it's only Coca Cola. The children would understand how this town is messed up. In fact three of Maycomb's white children have spent time in this courtroom and have witnessed unfairness against Tom Robinson. They realized how terrible they treated him They're not exposed to a bad image of black people. The kids have naive minds to understand all people are equal no matter what their race is. Why can't people be like them? Maycomb would become a better place for everybody.

Tom Robinson is innocent, how can he commit this crime with a hand that does not work? It's pretty clear that Bob Ewell rapes and beats his daughter Mayella Ewell. The court is just too scared to pronounce him innocent as he should be, because they don't want to be judged as a "nigger-lover". Tom Robinson is a hard working man that deserves to be alive. I respect Atticus Finch for representing Tom Robinson in the case because a normal white man in Maycomb would not have taken the job. Atticus isn't a judgemental person, he understands where people come from, and their situation. Tom has a family that is getting affected by this ridiculous trial. As a father of my own, I would want to be there for my kids always and this community destroyed that chance for his children.

To convict Tom Robinson of a crime he did not commit is pretty low even for white people here. Maycomb is just another little town willing to judge people for their skin color, I'm not saying it's everybody but the majority of the residences here are racist.
