

The Calendar of Lady Macbeth

By Harrison Wellner

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
				1. Act 1.1 (Not yet introduced)	2. Act 1.2 (Not yet introduced)	3. Act 1.3 (Not yet introduced)
4. Act 1.4 (Not yet introduced)	5. Act 1.5 Introduction of Lady Macbeth. Reveals that she is evil, and willing to take charge of the situation.	6. Act 1.6 Lady Macbeth speaks with Duncan, reveals capabilities to hide her true nature and goals.	7. Act 1.7 Lady Macbeth convinces a conflicted Macbeth to continue with the murder. Reveals her devotion to an evil cause.	8. Act 2.1 (Does not appear)	9. Act 2.2 Murder of Duncan. Lady Macbeth reveals true, complete lack of remorse, while Macbeth shows immediate pain.	10. Act 2.3 Duncan discovered dead. Lady Macbeth once again shows her ability to hide her true nature, and tricks all parties.
11. Act 2.4 (Does not appear)	12. Act 3.1 Lady Macbeth is with Macbeth and his lords, and she continues to act normal.	13. Act 3.2 Macbeth discusses his ideas on Banquo with Lady Macbeth. Lady Macbeth shows that she is beginning to no longer be in control.	14. Act 3.3 (Does not appear)	15. Act 3.4 Macbeth has a panic attack at dinner after seeing Banquo's ghost. Lady Macbeth only gets frustrated with him, showing she is still unaffected by their acts.	16. Act 3.5 (Does not appear)	17. Act 3.6 (Does not appear)
18. Act 4.1 (Does not appear)	19. Act 4.2 (Does not appear)	20. Act 4.3 (Does not appear)	21. Act 5.1 Lady Macbeth sleep walks, and unknowingly confesses murder to the doctor and maid examining her.	22. Act 5.2 (Does not appear)	23. Act 5.3 (Does not appear)	24. Act 5.4 (Does not appear)
25. Act 5.5 Lady Macbeth dies, showing that she may no longer find their acts of murder bearable.	26. Act 5.6 (Lady Macbeth is dead.)	27. Act 5.7 (Lady Macbeth is dead.)	28. Act 5.8 It is found that Lady Macbeth killed herself, confirming the suspicion of Day 25.	29.	30.

