

The people expected the king's reign to be long
Little did they know the prophecy how strong
While the king was strong and just
Macbeth's need for power was fueled by lust
Alas the king's trust in Macbeth
Was misplaced and lead to his death
From good to bad
From hero to evil
Macbeth truly made
Quite an upheavel
Having killed the great king
Macbeth at first felt guilt sting
As time passed
His guilt did not last
As he quickly became corrupt and cruel
It was clear someone must end his rule
Along came Macduff the lord
And cut Macbeth's head off with a sword
