BARR'D FROM STREET CARS,
BARR'D FROM EVERYTHING.

Many negroes were protesting recently about the segregation of street cars here. I was asked to interview them, and I got some very interesting words on the matter.
One negro man paused and looked at me in anger. "If we are good enough to fight for this country, we should be good enough to live in it." This is referring to the Civil War... (cont. on A3)

I WANT TO RIDE THE STREET CAR.

OPINIONS

anon On the issue of street cars, I feel that negroes have grown enough on their side, and we need to keep separating. Street cars are perfect, and more pleasurable. What kind of riots could break out if we put the white folk and negroes in the same street car? What could they be?

anon Our lord has put us on this earth for a reason, and it was not to be the dirt beneath a white man's shoe. While we are barred from the street cars, many people are dying, we need access to hospitals, food, and many other things that can only be accessed by the street cars. The black cars are low quality, tend to be less attention, while cars, which are less crowded. By putting us together, it will be more even.
