

I may not be the buffest guy in the world, but I'm more than twice the man those wannabes in wrestling could ever hope to be!

(Muscles aren't the only things that make men admirable, they also need moralistic tendencies and great personalities; hang in ballroom.)

