Summary

The story starts with a hero and his friend meeting witches. They meet witches that then creates three prophecies and the hero, who is the Thane of Cawdor, becomes hesitant of acting on these prophecies because one of them is to become king of Scotland. His wife helps him on figuring out what he should do. Then he soon becomes insane due to his friend's prophecies. One of his friend's prophecies is that one of his kids will be crowned king of Scotland.

Be Aware of the Curse of Macbeth!

Never say the name "Macbeth" inside a theater as it will cause a disaster, unless in a line of the play for rehearsal or performance of the play. Actors would refer it to "The Scottish Play." His wife is even referred to the name "Scottish Lady." People say the curse is due to one of the characters, Hecate, the most powerful witch of all.

To Release the Curse...

You must do the following... Spin around three (3) times, spitting over one's LEFT shoulder, and reciting a line from another play by Shakespeare. Another option could be leaving the theatre, spinning in circles and brushing yourself off, then saying "Macbeth" three times before coming in again.
