

Throughout my life, i've learned many things, and not just in school. All throughout life, you learn life lessons. I learn mine through reading and writing.

Karen Ossowski

Introducing Me.

People say that they go on adventures all the time, to other countries, so do i, but my adventures are on paper. Not only do i read, but i write, i started to read, then i got inspired. My dream was and still is to write, it's what i'm good at.