

My dad and I have a really good relationship. Throughout my whole life he has always supported me, and helped guide me as best as he could.

He always went to all of my sports games and important events.

My dad does the best he can he support our family.

