

Federal Security Agency

Bria Jackson & Steve Birkmire

Overview

- The F.S.A. was established in 1939 by the “Reorganization Act of 1939”
- The Act was issued by President Franklin D. Roosevelt
- The first director was Paul V. McNutt

Purpose...

- The purpose of the F.S.A. to limit the amount of agencies that would report back to the president.
- Some of these agencies included...
  - U.S. Public Health Service
  - Food & Drug Administration
  - United States Department of Education
  - And more...

The F.S.A. Today

- In 1953, the F.S.A. was abolished due to the “Reorganization Plan No. 1 of 1953”
- All of the F.S.A.’s duties were taken over by the United States Department of Health, Education & Welfare.