

Quarter 3

By:Alexa Lahr

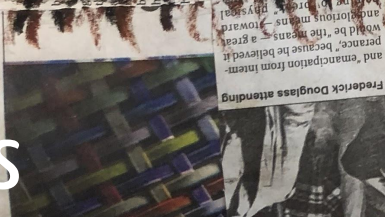

Tree of Life

No Guns

History in Your Eyes

Frederick Douglass attending newspaper to advertise, promote and foster good relationships among people of all races while fighting for the equal rights of all citizens, not just Blacks, but women, native Americans and anybody else passionate about equality.

"I think that Frederick Douglass is more than just a historical figure; I think that Frederick Douglass is a hero because he was part of the freedom movement, social and religious advances in the United States has great difficulties for African Americans, but for people around the world, he is a hero from his work."

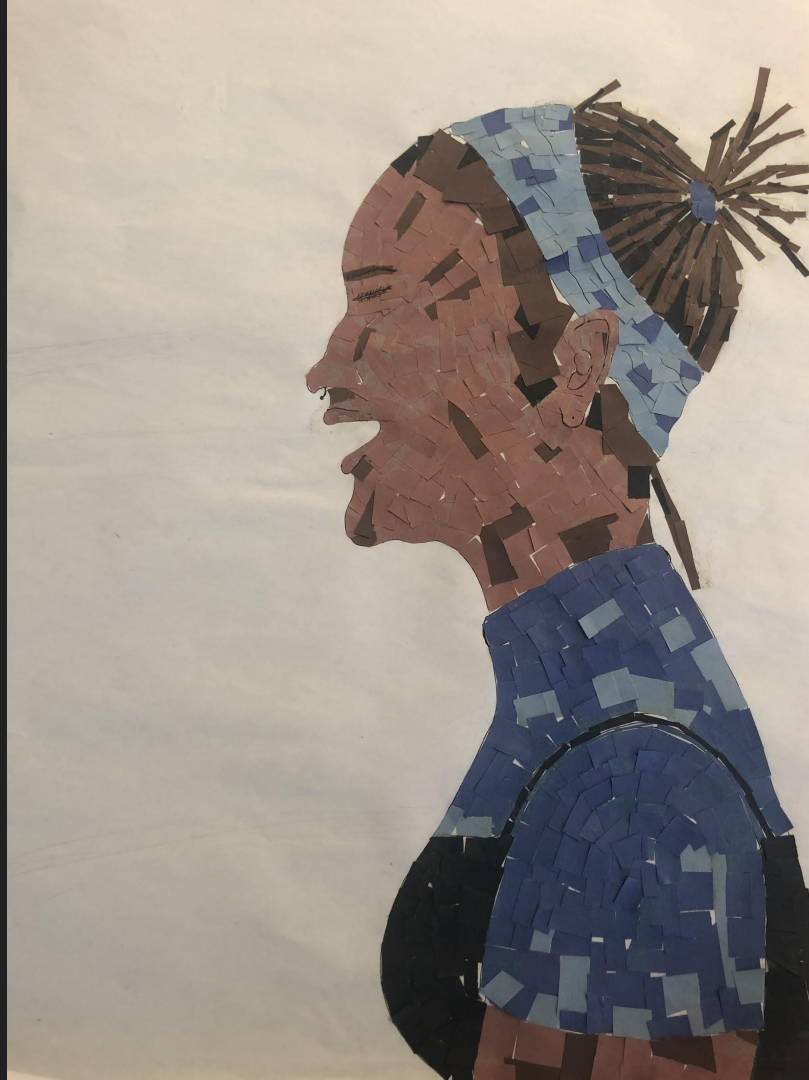

Douglass' most important jour-

the Civil War

If he were operating in the 21st century, Douglass would be a hero because he was a part of the freedom movement, social and religious advances in the United States has great difficulties for African Americans, but for people around the world, he is a hero from his work."

Douglass' most important jour-

Clarissa

Papistical Phenomena