

Capstone

All i did was end up donating 140 dollars worth of wood to tiny wpa :p

Goal

Make a table with phone chargers on it that is more durable and better looking than the one that was next to mr kamal's room back in my freshman year before some guy named leon broke it.

Process

All I got done before quarantine was the blueprint

Outcome

Am I proud of my how my capstone turned out?

no lol 🤔
