The Sound Track:

- When Maya finds her mom in the bathroom:
Oh No by Foxygen represents this situation especially 2:00. There's a collage of a bunch of instruments and it's really hectic, giving off an effect of stuff caving in on them and the end is coming. The only lyric in this part of the song is oh no but the way it's sung and used is beautiful.
- When Grace, Maya and Joaq find out their mom is dead:
The End by The Doors. This song was chosen because to us it represents the end of their journey and the lyrics "No safety or surprise The end I'll never look into your eyes again" just has a certain feel to the situation that's hard to phrase. The melody also plays a big role.
- Maya finds out her parents are getting divorced and her dad is moving out:
Don't Wanna Fight by Alabama Shakes is a good song for this moment because he's moving out because he's tired of fighting, unhappy, and probably doesn't want to waste time. The lyrics are a perfect example of this "Why can't we both be right? Attacking, defending Until there's nothing left worth winning Your pride and my pride Don't waste my time don't wanna fight no more".
- Joaquin comes home after running away from a huge fight with his parents, when he gets to Grace's house, his parents are already there:
In this part of the story he faces his problems once he is "cornered" and that brings me to Back Against the Wall by Cage The Elephant. The lyrics speak for this situation word to word "I said, you've got me where you want me again and I can't turn away I'm hanging by a thread and I'm feeling like I'll fall I'm stuck here in between these shadows of my yesterday I want to get away, I need to get away Now you know, yeah You've got my back against the wall Oh God, I ain't got no other place to hide".
- When Grace punches Adam
Almost had to start a fight by Parquet Courts matches this scene even though she did technically start a fight. The lyrics seem to describe what's happening in a way.
- When Maya and Claire get back together and they share a lot of deep emotions
Happy Together by the Turtles is good for this moment in the book for when Maya and Claire get back together. It's good because they are both "happy together" again. The song portrays a happy fun mood which they seem to be in.

- Grace meets Rafe in the bathroom

The song We're Gonna Be Friends by The White Stripes just has a certain feel for this situation. The song seems really relatable for this even though the lyrics don't really match with the situation.

- When maya and claire breakup: I think Bags by Clario is a good song for this event because the song isn't about a breakup, the lyrics still relate to their relationship. "I can't read you but if you want, the pleasures are all mine" and "I guess this could be worse, walking out the door with your bags" both of these quotes represent how both Claire and Maya feel.

- Grace throughout her life in the book

I'm still standing by Eton John is represents this because it seems like she is going through a lot of pain but is always standing with her chin up and that reminds me of the lyrics of I'm Still Standing

- One of joaquins conversations with his therapist:

I think Goblin by Tyler the creator is a good song for this situation, while it's kind of a stretch, both songs are basically about them talking about their emotions to another person. "Cause i'm too scared to tell my friends the way i really feel?" and "Like no one has those really dark thoughts when they are alone."
