

Dear Readers,

Hi readers I'm Jaelle (Jae). I have wrote this story to inform you all about my life. I have alot of useful information about me in here so please use it wisely and carefully. I talk about a time I have changed, My Passion, Some extras about me. And also my friends. My Closest friends If you want to learn more about that you can read more into my story. I believe you will find my story quite interesting. I have worked very hard on this Magazine (Hand crafted) I have written everything by hand I know its not the best but i think it makes me unique.

Thank you for listening,

Jaelle Smith (Jae)

Jac's Vignete:

When I was in eighth grade was a friend group that I was a part of. I'm not proud of it because they always thought they were better than everyone else. Then there was the two girls that everyone called the "leaders" of the friend group. I never listened to them when they tried to boss everyone around. So one day in march I got into a really big argument with one of the leaders because she got in my buissness a I corrected her. Once I did that the whole class started to gang up on me so I got really frustrated but the teacher helped me calm down. After that day me & one of the so-called leaders stopped being friends. After this the vibe was off everyone started to act weird towards me. I'm guessing I was doing something wrong to everyone. So I guess this gave everyone a chance to stop being my friend. A couple weeks later everyone was completely distant from everyone. And I also was having problems of my own. So I started to become distant, this led me to lose alot of the friends I had left. I know that this is my fault but I also had no support system so I was all over the place. So one day I was added to this groupchat and they were saying some really mean things so I left and just decided to remove myself from that friend group completely. Once I distanced myself i started to work on myself. Even though I lost alot of friends on the way I stopped caring because i had my other friends. I feel like this process helped me alot because of how it helped me get a clean slate for highschool. So what i have learned from this is that the only friend in life you need is yourself.

Jae's Passion:

My passion is dancing. Dancing is such a magical experience. I believe it makes me happy more than anything else. When I dance I believe I can express myself in ways that I want without being judged. Dancing makes me feel enthusiastic. I can do this all in a positive way.

My greatest passion is dancing because I believe that dance speaks to me differently than others. I makes me feel like im actually living and worth living. Especially during competition season. That's really the best time to be dancing because when you get on the dance floor is such a different feeling. Like once I get on the floor it makes me feel like nothing else matters.

I do get really nervous when I'm getting ready to get on the floor. But once the music starts it's so fun to dance. I feel like there is this misconception that dance is boring. But in reality dance is what you make out of it. But in dance you have to take ballet to do another class so I took Ballet, Hip Hop, Jazz, Tap, and Drill team. But dance is a very time consuming sport so I would make sure that you have time in your schedule just incase you do others things. So moral of the story my greatest passion is dancing because I love it and wouldn't change my decision for the world.

Volleyball:

I just started playing Volleyball this year and I was surprised to make the team. Even though it's JV (Junior Varsity) I believe I'm still good. I believe I can be better. So I practice everyday so I can be the best I can be. I believe volleyball has helped me take out stress between school & at home stuff hitting the ball has helped me cope with a lot of things. So I will continue to practice & get better and be better. I'm glad to have found my outlet to cope.

My Friends ♡:

My friends are very important to me. Especially the ones I made this year. Marissa, Jay, Ya'minah, Geona, Sasha and many more. I love these girls with all my heart. But I can't my friends or should I say friend / Best friends Keyerah & Imani. These two have been with me have been with me since second grade even though we don't talk that much & we have arguments doesn't I love them any less.

Scaretober:

As you may not know my birthday is October 12th. Now as we all know October is the scariest month which i happen to be born in. Now this month is usually where everyone goes to haunted houses, fright fest etc... But me I HATE anything scary. I have never watched anything scary. I just cant do it I get scared also I hate anything related to haunted houses. I have never been to a fright fest or a haunted house which is usually on the whole month of October. Which I hate because I watch Netflix & anything Disney that whole month. I believe that my birthday was meant to be. Mind you I LOVE my Birthday I believe libra is one of the best signs. But I just cant do anything scary.

Music Therapy:

I believe my music therapy is RNB.
I love PNB Rock (RIP) and Jhene Aiko. These are my favorite artist unfortunately PNB Rock unfortunately passed away while im writing this story. I love Jhene Aiko because she gives life her music is so therapeutic and I can relate to it alot I feel like they are different but have alot in common. They have this genre of music
that is so relatable.
