FAMILY ... Got to Love them

"Clean your room!", "Do the dishes!", "Eat your veggies!" and of course "Do your homework!" We have all heard this from our parents throughout our lives, and for all of the people who have siblings, don't even get me started. Family can be annoying at times, but I've always loved mine. Family has been a huge part of my life for a long time.

"Why is your family so important to you?" you might ask. Well that's a great question, here is why. My family has been there for me through all of the rough, hard and stressful times in my life. My family cares for me and I care for them. They care if I pass or fail my classes, if I succeed or don't succeed in life and most of all they care about me and my well being. I know how corny do I sound, but it's true. Qualities I get from my family are street smarts and book smarts. Since they know I have these qualities they give me lots of responsibility and freedom, but not too much. I am so amazingly ecstatic to have these qualities from my family.

"Huge!" is what I think about when somebody utters the words love and family. My families influence on me is enormous. I want to be successful like them, do well in school and I want to be everything they are today. Happy is what I want to be when I am 10 or 20 years older.

My dad's side of the family lives in California, New York and New Jersey. I don't get to see this side a lot. I haven't seen my Aunt and 4 cousins for 6 years. Last time my grandmother came for Thanksgiving was a year ago. My Uncle Elmer comes every year because he loves me. There are many more relatives but I don't know them very well. My mom's side lives mostly up in the North Eastern part of the U.S. This side consists of 2 Aunts, 2 Uncles, 5 Cousins, 2 Grandmas, a Grandpa, 2 dogs, 1 cat and numbers of cows, ducks, chickens and rabbits. My family is huge, enormous and gigantic.

The people I live with are my mom, dad, grandma, sister Tianna and 2 cats. My mom's name is Kathrine Martin, her nick names are Katie and Kate. Darryl Taylor is my father's name, his friends call him D.T. My sister name is Kaia Taylor, she has too many nick names to count. Nina is what we like to call our grandma (on mom's side). Tianna is a close friend that is renting out 2 rooms in our house. Remember the 2 cats I mentioned earlier, well their names are Azul and Sole. Azul is a Blue (gray) Cornish Rex. Sole is a Bombay, Bombay's are all the same color. She has black hair and yellow eyes. I love these people and animals very much.

Words that describe my family are crazy, funny, amazing, smart, fantastic, superb, magnificent, pleasant, spectacular, extraordinary, tangy and many more. Don't forget to tell your family you love them.

BUSY!

Busy! Busy! Busy! All the time I am just so out of control busy. But this way I can never get bored. People all over the world have sports they are interested in, religious activities and life at school.

One of the places you can find me sometimes is at my church. Wednesdays are the days I usually go to church. I am part of a youth group called Core for high schoolers. I am also a part of a missions team, missions teams travel to different places and share the gospel. Every summer I travel to Chester PA and hold a VBS (Vacation Bible School) and do service projects. But now that I am in high school I get to travel to Logan PA next summer. My church's name is Church of the Savior (Cos for short). Cos is located in Wayne PA. I also got to be a counselor at some summer camps. I absolutely love my church.

Pulling, kicking Flipping are all things you can see me doing while at swim team. The teams name is the Serpents. We are a competitive team and swim against other teams. Tuesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sundays are all days practice is held. Tuesday-Friday practice starts at 4pm and ends at 6pm. Saturday start at 6am and end at 8am. Sundays start at 9am and ends at 12pm. My coaches names are Coach Boston and Coach Fred. My team is like my family. We are really close. Although I love swim team, I could never leave them no matter how hard the work out is and no matter how much school work I must do.

School has been so much fun so far. The teachers here are so amazing and understanding. Friends are being made left and right for me. Every morning I get a work out running up and down the staircase because my locker and advisory is on the 5th floor. I barely have enough time to do my homework because I am so busy, but I seem to manage. I can't wait to see what awesome plans they have planned for us this year and years to come.

OCTOBER

HOROSCOPES

libra

Sep 23–Oct 22 You've got creativity to spare, Libra, and under the full moon on the 23rd, you'll be poised to grab the spotlight (in the school play, perhaps?). Making sure everyone works well together is just as vital to you as expressing your vision, so you'll share the praise. Talk about good karma!

scorpio

Oct 23–Nov 21

Your BFF thinks she's found the perfect guy for you, and with Venus and Mars in your sign on the 3rd, she'll go overboard trying to arrange a way for you to meet him. Face it: You're a little curious, so agree to a low-key group date to see if you click. Just trust your gut on this, Scorp!

sagittarius

Nov 22–Dec 21

With school in full swing, it's been tough finding the time for your whole crew to get together. Help is on the way! When the sun moves into the friendship area of your chart on the 16th, everyone will be free (and psyched!) for a big night out, so start planning now!

capricorn

Dec 22–Jan 19

Take-charge Capricorn girls love the chance to prove themselves, and this month the stars will work in your favor! On the 1st, the sun and Saturn will join forces to help you land an interview for a cool internship or after-school job. You'll crush it!

aquarius

Jan 20–Feb 18

Guys are drawn to your independent streak—but then they get all clingy if you're off doing your thing. But on the 24th, Mars and Uranus will introduce you to a guy who gets that you need your space. You'll have a blast with him but still have time for you!

pisces

Feb 19–Mar 20

Because of your sensitive nature, people are always confiding in you. You can usually be trusted with any secret, but when Mercury and Saturn link at the start of October, you'll hear gossip so juicy, you'll be tempted to spill it. To keep people from getting hurt, zip it, Pisces!

aries

Mar 21–Apr 19

Your two BFFs have been arguing nonstop, and on the 5th, the tension will explode into a fight of epic proportions. An unflappable Aries like you isn't fazed by drama, so once things cool down, you'll be the one to help them make up!

taurus

Apr 20–May 20

Admit it, Taurus: When you have a crush, you can't help daydreaming about him a lot. But when Venus goes retrograde on the 8th, your thoughts may get obsessive. Reach out to your close-knit group for support: They'd love to plan fun stuff to help you refocus your energies!

gemini

May 21–Jun 20

Two guys are vying for your affection, and they'd like you to pick already! Understandable, but with Mercury going haywire for the first three weeks of the month, it will be impossible to make a choice and stick with it, so don't even think of deciding until the 21st!

cancer

Jun 21–Jul 22

The moon seems to affect Cancer girls more than anyone. From the 7th to the 22nd, the new moon will put you in the best mood—but when it turns full the next day, you'll crash! A girls' night in with DVDs and hot chocolate on the 23rd is the way to go.

leo

Jul 23–Aug 22

When Mars moves into the romance area of your chart from the 28th on, you'll be majorly ready to meet a new guy. There will be a few candidates in the running, all of them super into you. PS: One cutie is not your usual type, but he'll be the most fun out of all of them!

virgo

Aug 23–Sep 22

A guy you know has been down in the dumps, and you'd love to find a way to cheer him up! On the 25th, Venus will send you inspiration for a special day for just the two of you. Your tender attention will lift his spirits (and his feelings for you will deepen)!
